THE HOLY MARTYRS PROCLUS AND HILARION were natives of the village of Kallippi, near Ancyra, and they suffered during the time of a persecution under the emperor Trajan (98-117). Christians buried them together in a single grave.
Kontakion - Like the morning star, your glorious sufferings enlighten us with holy miracles. We celebrate your memory, Proclus and Hilary; Pray to Christ God for us that He will save our souls.

SPILLS: Please check to see if spilled drinks have dripped on the wall when cleaning up drink spills to avoid attracting critters. We may try keeping the drinks on the metal sink counter to help eliminate this problem. Adults are asked to please help the children.

A brother questioned an old man, 'Tell me something which I can do, so that I may live by it', and the old man said, 'If you can bear to be despised, that is a great thing, more than all the other virtues.

Welcome Visitors! Christ Is In Our Midst!

*We are honored you are visiting today. * Liturgy Books may be found on the Candle Table at the back of the church. * We invite you to fill out a Visitor's Card, also on the Candle Table & place it in one of the Collection Baskets there. * We do not take up a Collection during our services but rather ask you to place donations in one of the baskets on the Candle Table. * While only Orthodox Christians who have prepared themselves may receive Holy Communion, everyone is welcome to come forward at the end of Liturgy to receive a blessing from our priest and to take the blessed bread. * It is the Orthodox practice to stand during services as a sign of reverence for the Lord but if you need to sit, please do so. Use of chairs is shared. If you are able, we particularly try to stand during the processions with the Gospel and the Gifts, during the Readings, the Creed, during the preparation of the Holy Eucharist, the Lord's Prayer and reception of Communion. * We invite you to stay after the Thanksgiving Prayers for fellowship and coffee, so that we may greet you personally, and to answer any questions you may have about our faith, our parish or today's service. * Please help yourself to the brochures and information on the Literature Table. * We hope you will visit us again.

Please send Prayer Corner names and updates along with bulletin announcements to
